

SALVATION ARMY TO BUILD CITADEL

Religious Organization Plans
Home in Washington for Homeless Men.

As soon as the authorities of the Salvation Army raise about $50,000, which they say is needed, work will be started upon a $100,000 "Citadel," which, in many ways, will rival the Mills Hotel of New York and will, the army authorities hope, become the living-place and club of many of the homeless young men of the Capital.

According to Col. R. E. Holz, provincial officer in charge of the Atlantic Coast province of the Salvation Army, whose headquarters are in Philadelphia, there will be no difficulty in raising the necessary money and he believes that within a short time Washington's Salvationists will have a home worthy of the cause.

The citadel, as such Salvation Army establishments are called, will boast, in addition to the usual bedrooms, etc., a large assembly room where services of the local branch of the Army may be held. Provision will be made also for rooms where simple games may be played by the citadel's guests.

The national officers of the army discussed the matter at a meeting yesterday coming four of General Booth, who will visit Washington soon. A suitable hall will be hired for the headquarters and the old but viable leader will make an address to thousands as he did a year ago.

According to the officers, Washington shows more improvement from a Salvation Army standpoint than does any other large city in the southeastern division. It is probable that when the citadel is erected the headquarters of the southeastern division will be located here.

At the meeting yesterday the following were present: Col. William Perch, chief secretary of the United States, of New York; Colonel Dayman, field secretary of New York; Colonel Margaret, young people's secretary, of New York; Col. and Mrs. R. E. Holz, provincial officer of the Atlantic coast province, of Philadelphia; Captain Cook, of Philadelphia; Major M. E. Barker and Adjutant Core, of this city.

PROPOSED COMMERCIAL CLUB HOME

HISTORIC DON CAMERON HOUSE IN LAFAYETTE SQUARE.

A definite decision is expected to be reached by the latter part of this week with respect to the leasing of the Don Cameron house in Lafayette Square, adjoining the Belasco Theater, as a home for the Commercial Club of Washington.

Following the inspection of the property yesterday by the house committee of the new club, of which John L. Weaver is chairman, and a number of the incorporators, it was stated today that the committee is securing certain data regarding the conditions upon which the house can be secured. This is taken as indicating that the committee is more than pleased with the building, both with respect to its location and equipment as constituting an ideal home for the Commercial Club, and that all that remains to be done is to make satisfactory leasing terms.

The Cameron house was occupied by Vice President Hobart during his term of office and at one time served as the home of Senator Marcus A. Hanna. It has one of the most interesting histories of any residence in Washington. All of the rooms are large and conveniently arranged, while many of the walls are tapestried. But very little furnishing will be required to make it accede to all the needs of the Commercial Club.

TRUCKER BLAMES MAKERS OF BOXES

In response to a recent communication from J. H. Spencer, of Anacostia, in which complaint is made of alleged "short measure" in the manufacture of fruit and tomato boxes used by truckers, Samuel E. Cox, of Prince George county, Md., has addressed to the Commissioners a letter in defense of the farmers. Mr. Spencer, but are purchased from the manufacturers in large quantities, and are of standard size. The purchaser, he adds, usually obtains from the producer not only his money's worth, but "a little bit more."

The Commissioners have recommended to Congress a bill providing for a standard size of receptacles used for the sale of farm and garden produce.

EAT CORNED BEEF, CABBAGE, PORK AND ONIONS FOR DINNER

Do you crave for a good old fashioned New England boiled dinner? Corned beef and cabbage and pork and beans and onions and turnips? There may be a few readers of The Times who will turn up their noses and sniff contemptuously, but if they do it's because they have never faced the good old kind like mother used to make. But there are thousands of people in this world who won't eat a New England boiled dinner because they can't digest it.

And these people ought to know at once that Mi-o-na tablets, the quick acting and guaranteed cure for indigestion, will put the stomach in such a clean and perfectly healthy condition in a few days that they will be able to eat and digest a New England boiled dinner or any other kind of a dinner.

Henry Evans sells Mi-o-na for 50 cents a large box and he guarantees it to cure indigestion, catarrh of the stomach or any chronic or acute stomach trouble or money back.

Mrs. Susan Rea, says: "For months I endured the pains and agony of the stomach that I could not digest and my appetite got bad. I doctored without relief or success until I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. This remedy cured my trouble entirely and I can, since using Mi-o-na partake of any kind of food that I wish." 20 Pratt St., Pontiac, Mich.

Mi-o-na is a wonder worker. It instantly stops distress after eating; turns a sour stomach into a sweet one; stops belching and heartburn. Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

EXAMINING BRAIN OF A VICIOUS DOG

The brain of a supposed mad dog that was shot after it had run amuck and caused a small panic near Seventh and K streets southwest yesterday, was sent to the Bureau of Animal Industry this morning for microscopic examination to determine whether the canine was suffering from rabies.

Foaming at the mouth, the dog ran through the streets in the southwest section of the city, but did not bite any one so far as the police were able to learn. The dog was finally captured with a net and sent to the pound.

The Lovers of Good Music, as Usual, did not fail to appreciate the delightful music of the Marine Band at the Marine Barracks, led by Mr. Santelmann. A new, a very popular piece, "Military Days" by H. W. Miller, met with much appreciation.—Adv.
